

Rural gallery celebrating culture

SELMA - Gallery 215 in Selma is celebrating Culture days in Canada with a show of hooked rugs from several artisans from Colchester, Hants and Halifax counties this weekend.

The gallery will display approximately 24 pieces by Anita Duckenfield, Gail Wyn, Leone Cox, Margaret Geldart, Tanya McNutt, Sally Walsh, Norma Spearing and others.

In addition to the show of finished work, there will be rug hooking demos and the opportunity to try your own bit of hooking.

Gallery 215 also offers wood working demos on Sunday afternoon and a large cooperative painting to work on.

Weather permitting several artists plan to paint on site and refreshments will be served Saturday and Sunday.

Gallery 215 is open daily 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For more information, contact 902-261-2151.

This block contains a collage of small advertisements from a newspaper page. The largest ad at the top is for the 'Truro Art Society hosting Fall FanTASia', which includes the headline 'Rural gallery celebrating culture'. Other smaller ads include 'Prince of Pizza' with a 'FREE DELIVERY TO TRURO' offer, 'The Dory Shop - Boat, Bath & Boatique' with the phone number 843-0893, 'Call Ding Grooming' for 'Canadian made pet Products', and 'Call Express' for 'Call Express' services. There are also several other small, less legible ads.